The Faint and G. Love & Special Sauce to Headline Day on the Hill

Lawrence, KS—Student Union Activities will be bringing bands The Faint and G. Love & Special Sauce to the Lied Center Lawn for the annual Day on the Hill concert. The concert will begin at 12:00PM with opening band The Roseline followed by Pomeroy and continue until 6:00PM. Coca-Cola and the KU Board of Class Officers are co-sponsors for Day on the Hill. Day on the Hill is a concert that allows KU students and Lawrence residents to enjoy popular and up-and-coming music throughout the entire day.

Last year marked the return Day on the Hill from a four-year hiatus. This KU and Lawrence tradition started in the 1980's and has featured bands such as: They Might Be Giants, The Gin Blossoms, and Pearl Jam. The Faint is a techno-pop band from Omaha, Nebraska that has been performing since 1994. G. Love & Special Sauce will be stopping in Lawrence before heading overseas to play more shows.

Tickets for Day on the Hill will be on sale Wednesday, March 14. Tickets are free for SUA Preferred Student Card holders, $5 for KU students, and $10 for general admission. To purchase tickets you can either call or come in to the SUA Box Office on the 4th floor of the Kansas Union (785) 894 – SHOW. Preferred Student Card holders must come in to redeem their ticket.
