KJHK Student Radio Wins Kansas Association of Broadcasters Awards

KJHK Radio, a student-run station serving the University of Kansas, was presented with five awards at the annual Kansas Association of Broadcasters awards ceremony held in Wichita, KS, on April 2nd.

The KAB awards recognized outstanding student efforts in radio, television, and Internet broadcasting. There were a total 138 radio entries during this year's ceremony, with a total of 32 winners. The award winners from KJHK were:

1st Place, 60-second Station Promotion, "Hip Hop Hyp", Laura Watkins and Jason Agron

1st Place, Entertainment Program, "The Sporting Life", Rustin Dodd, Blake Cripps, Ryan Elder

2nd Place, Entertainment Program, "The Panel, Episode 11.09.06", Annie Harrigan, Ian Hrabe, Joe Noh

2nd Place, Documentary, "DBR", Annie Harrigan

Honorable Mention, Sports Play-by-Play, "KU vs. K-State Men's Basketball", Bryan Cisler, Rustin Dodd

"With so many entries, this year was very competitive", stated Tom Johnson, KJHK general manager and advisor. "Our students made a great showing and all of them should be proud of their accomplishments."

KJHK, a public radio station, has been broadcasting from the KU campus in Lawrence since 1975. It is a division of the KU Memorial Unions which reports to the Office of the Vice Provost for Student Success.
