Comedy Central invades campus with political mockery from Indecision 2008 Tour featuring comedian Greg Giraldo

Lawrence, KS— In the realm of political mockery, Comedian Central reigns supreme. And in a hectic election year filled with millions of candidates, issues and enough caucuses to last a lifetime, the good people at Comedy Central are setting out to spread their unique brand of semi-fair and always unbalanced sarcasm from sea to shining sea. While we're knee deep in our very own Kansas caucus, Student Union Activities is proud to present the Comedy Central Live Indecision 2008 Tour featuring comedian Greg Giraldo and special guest James Adomian as George W. Bush. This special event will take place on Friday, February 8 at 7:30 pm at the Lied Center.

Greg Giraldo is one of the hottest comics in the country. Socially provocative and yet broadly funny, Greg has become one of the most versatile and highly entertaining comics working today. Greg is well known from his stint as a regular panelist on Comedy Central's Tough Crowd with Colin Quinn, in addition to numerous stand-up specials and appearances on the Late Show with David Letterman and Late Night with Conan O'Brien.

Tickets for this event are FREE for SUA Preferred Student Card holders and only $5 for any KU or non-KU student. General public tickets are only $7. Tickets will be on sale starting Friday, January 25th and will be available at the SUA Box Office on Level 4 of the Kansas Union, the Lied Center Box Office, and Murphy Hall. The SUA Box Office is open

Monday through Friday, 9 am – 5 pm. Tickets are also available for purchase online through the Lied Center website at lied.ku.edu
