SUA brings Gabriel Iglesias to the stage

LAWRENCE, Kan.— Student Union Activities of the University of Kansas will present standup comedian Gabriel Iglesias on Wednesday, Oct. 22nd at 7:30 p.m. at the Lied Center as part of KU's Homecoming Week.

Iglesias got his start from the Galavision show "Que Locos!". Those appearances led to a nationwide tour with sold-out shows across the nation, as well as guest spots on television and film. Best known for his use of various character voices and sound effects, Iglesias has been seen on Last Comic Standing, Comedy Central, and Family Guy. Iglesias also won a Kid's Choice Award in 2000, Comedy Central & Comcast Cable's Comedy Special of the Year in 2003, and was voted into the Top 25 of Comedy Central's Standup Showdown.

"Gabriel's comedy mixture brings his issues to life for a thoughtful yet comedic experience," Jacque Lumsden, SUA Special Events Coordinator, said.
