Student Union Activities to host KU's Best Dance Crew

LAWRENCE, Kan.—Student Union Activities of the University of Kansas will host Kansas City's Best Dance Crew Thursday, March 26 at 7:00 p.m. in the Kansas Union Ballroom on the level 5 of the Kansas Union.

The most exciting and unusual thing about this particular take on a dance crew competition is that there are no professional judges at any time during the competition. The winner of the best dance crew is determined completely by the audience. SUA hopes that each crew is able to bring out their friends and get them excited for interactive voting. Participation is open to all students of all experience levels from amateur to professional crews. The event is also open to any kinds of dance not just hip-hop or break dancing. The winning crew will receive $500.

"I'm really excited because the winning crew is decided by the audience, not by a panel of judges. Plus, this is a great opportunity for students to have fun and show off, no matter their experience level," Grace Sha, Cultural Arts Coordinator, said.

The event is free to all KU students with a KU I.D., but students will need to pick up voucher tickets necessary for the voting process. Vouchers can be picked up at the SUA Box Office located at the 4th floor of the Kansas Union. For more information on this and other events, visit the SUA Web site at www.suaevents.com, or call the SUA Box Office, located on Level 4 of the Kansas Union, at 785-864-7469.
