Student Union Activities to host World Series of Pop Culture event

LAWRENCE, Kan.—Student Union Activities of the University of Kansas will host the first World Series of Pop Culture trivia competition on Saturday, March 28 at 1 p.m. in the Kansas Union. The finale of the competition will take place at 3 p.m. in Alderson Auditorium in the Kansas Union.

SUA's World Series of Pop Culture event will recreate the popular VH1 show for KU students. Teams will be asked questions regarding pop culture for a chance to advance through the competition and win over $300 in prizes. The event will also feature special guest and Lawrence local Eric Melin from season two of the VH1 series.

Participation is now free and there is a four person maximum per team. Teams can sign up in the SUA box office on Level 4 of the Kansas Union.

“We're excited to showcase the students who come out and test their pop culture knowledge and to see how they match up with other students from their generation,” Joe Day, SUA films and media coordinator, said.

For more information on this and other events, visit the SUA Web site at www.suaevents.com, or call the SUA box office, located on Level 4 of the Kansas Union, at 785-864-7469.
