Student Union Activities to host advance screening of “The Invention of Lying”

LAWRENCE, Kan.—Student Union Activities of the University of Kansas will host an advance screening of the upcoming film “The Invention of Lying” before it appears in theaters. The screening will take place Wednesday, Sept. 30 at 8 p.m. in Woodruff Auditorium on Level 5 of the Kansas Union.

“The Invention of Lying,” starring Rick Gervais, Jennifer Garner, and Tina Fey is a comedy where one man discovers lying in a world where nobody lies. Appearances by Jonah Hill and Rob Lowe are also featured in Gervais’ quest to discover the positive and negative affects of lying.

The event is free and vouchers can be picked up Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., at the SUA Box Office on Level 4 of the Kansas Union. You can also download a movie pass at gofobo.com to receive a voucher.

“SUA is always excited to bring movies to campus before they are even in theaters. Join us for this hilarious and FREE movie!” Andrew Filmore, SUA Films and Media coordinator, said.

For more information on this and other events, visit the SUA Web site at www.suaevents.com, or call the SUA Box Office at 785-864-7469.
