Student Union Activities to host advance screening of “The Fourth Kind”

LAWRENCE, Kan.—Student Union Activities of the University of Kansas will host an advance screening of the upcoming film “The Fourth Kind” on Wednesday, Nov. 4 at 8 p.m. in Woodruff Auditorium on Level 5 of the Kansas Union. The screening will take place two days before the movie opens in theaters on Nov. 6.

“The Fourth Kind,” starring “Resident Evil” actress Milla Jovovich, is a thriller set in Nome, Alaska about documented alien activity within the area. Jovovich plays psychotherapist Abigail Tyler who analyzes her recent patients about alien abduction and the evidence surrounding it.

The event is free and vouchers can be picked up anytime at the SUA Box Office on Level 4 of the Kansas Union. Vouchers do not guarantee a seat at the event.

“SUA is particularly excited to bring Universal Pictures’ “The Fourth Kind” to campus,” Andrew Fillmore, SUA Films and Media Coordinator, said. “This horror film will be a fun and totally FREE event for everyone to enjoy.”

For more information on this and other events, visit the SUA Web site at www.suaevents.com, or call the SUA Box Office at 785-864-7469.
